Exhibitions

Salon Hanging

Location: Owens Art Gallery

A floor-to-ceiling feast for the eyes, the Salon Hanging invites visitors to contemplate over 100 works of art, many from the Owens Art Gallery's original collection, which was acquired in 1893. First assembled in 1884-1885, this collection is one of the oldest collections of its kind in Canada.

School Effects

In 1893, the year the Owens Art Institute (Saint John) transferred its holdings to Mount Allison University, an article appeared in the Saint John Globe describing the collection as "Works of Art and School effects." The collection of 388 pictures, 32 plaster casts, and a small library of art books expanded the Art Department at the University and established the Owens Art Gallery.
